

2022 in review

Supporting LGBTQI+ people through the asylum and immigration system

18

Service users granted asylum

219

People received legal advice on asylum

75
People referred to housing and accommodation services

"Rainbow Migration put my life back on track, help me get over depression and realise there is still hope for me."

One of our service users in 2022

99

People received support to buy essentials like food and hygiene products

46

People secured legal representation

145

People received one to one emotional support

70

People referred to mental health and other health services

Every service user who completed our evaluation form said they now better understand the asylum process after accessing our legal advice service

